'Y' Sets Series of Fall Meetings on Programs

Leisure-time fun and some valuable training is being offered to all boys in the first through sixth grades this fall by the Torrance Family YMCA.

The local youth organization will be conducting information meetings beginning next week to explain the "Y" program to dads and sons who are interested in participating, according to Joe Wilcox, executive secretary of the local "Y."

Beginning Monday and extending through Sept. 30, volunteers from the "Y" will hold meetings at each of the 38 elementary schools served by the Torrance YMCA.

leagues or weekend camping trips.

Dads are expected to participate, but the boys are trained to conduct their own programs, elect their own officers and write their own agenda. Among the special activities are pinebox derby races, athletic competition, and interesting field trips.

Fern-Greenwood, Hickory, and Seaside schools.

- Sept. 24—Anza, Madrona, Towers, and Victor schools.
- Sept. 28—Edison, Hamilton, Madison, Magruder, Perry, and Steele schools.
- Sept. 29—Carr, Crenshaw, and Lincoln schools. (Boys from Casimir are invited to meet at Lincoln School).
- Sept. 30—Flavian, Lomita, Meadow Park, Van Deene Street, and Howard Wood schools.

ROBERT PHILPOTT, chief of the 80-tribe Wamptusi Nation (Torrance YMCA), said more than 200 volunteer dads and sons will manage information meetings scheduled at the various schools.

"We of the YMCA owe a debt to the community for the generosity shown the 'Y' in its recent drive to build a fine new youth center," Philpott said. Every effort will be made to insure that every boy in the community has a chance to participate in a "Y" program, he added.

Boys from Torrance Elementary are invited to meet at the YMCA, 2080 Washington Ave., Wednesday, Sept. 23. Boys from Yukon School will meet with the Edison School group Monday evening.

If boys are unable to attend the meeting nearest their home, Philpott invited them to attend one of the other meetings.

Meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m., generally in the cafeteria at the schools. The meeting schedule includes:

- Sept. 21—Hillside, Newton, Parkway, Riviera, and Walleria Schools.
- Sept. 22—Calle Mayor, Arlington, Halldale, Jefferson, Sepulveda, and 223rd Street schools.
- Sept. 23—Adams, Arnold,
